

Educating the Whole Person workshop

For Middle Years Teachers & Administrators

Barcelona, Spain

Friday 19th - Sunday 21st February 2010

We are pleased to invite Middle Years teachers & administrators to the Educating the Whole Person Workshop. The workshops will take place in Barcelona from Friday, 19th February - Sunday, 21st February 2010. The aim of this workshop is to foster a deeper understanding of what it means to educate the whole person and to explore related themes.

Workshop Venue

Barceló Hotel Sants
Plaça Països Catalans s/n
Estació Sants
08014 Barcelona

Workshop Programme

The intensive two and a half day programmes - which run from 0830 on Friday to 1200 on Sunday and consist of ten ninety minute sessions - are designed to re-energise experienced teachers. The workshops will be interactive in nature and will seek to combine theory and practice. Participants will also be invited to share examples of successful classroom strategies.

Workshop Leaders

Dinos Aristidou is at present Creative Learning Programme Manager for the Arts Council of England, South East. He is a consultant, Senior Examiner and approved workshop leader for the IBO and most recently worked on the IBMYP Arts Guide. He has run a number of workshops for international teachers and students and has been a key note speaker for IBO MYP events. He has run workshops and consultancies for the Engineering and Physical Sciences Research Think Tank, Lane4 and Creative Partnerships.

Glen Johnson is currently the head of the Mathematics Department at Copenhagen International School where he teaches IBMYP Mathematics and IBMYP Design Technology and also runs a creative problem solving competition for teenagers. He has given numerous MYP Mathematics workshops for the IB for new, intermediate and experienced teachers, as well as working as an MYP accreditation/ evaluation team member. He also has a teaching background in Gifted and Talented Education and has a particular interest in learning styles, how the brain learns and contextualised learning.
